CONGRESSIONAL.

Senator Edmonds's resolution adjourning congress on the twenty-second of June was agreed to in the senate yesterday. The civil appropriation bill, as A amended, passed the senate, after nearly the entire day had been consumed in its discussion. In the house Mr. Whitthorne's bill to remove the political disabilities of Thomas Claiborne, of Tennessee, passed; also a bill The Election of U. S. Senator in Contransferring the county of Perry from the western to the middle judicial district of Tennessee. The bill to amend the customs laws and to repeal the system of moleties to informers in customs revenue cases was taken up in the house, Odd-Fellows in Ohio-The Refermed and discussed at length, during which the names of Phelps, Dodge & Co., Sanborn, and several members of congress, as well as government officials, were strangely mixed. The bill was subjected to several amendments, and finally passed. The election committee
